

A 10% increase in electricity is alarming and affects our profitability if we are given no time to adjust for it... We have to know at least a year ahead of such a big increase - 5% would be OK but 10% is ridiculous. Its also irritating that we cannot have more than a 5kw solar system as would like to be able to generate more clean electricity....