

I am writing to strongly object to the proposed increase in electricity for businesses. Businesses, especially many smaller, are already struggling with costs. Making such a large increase in essential utilities will only aid in crippling many of them .