

The qca needs to consider that as well as the natural yield we have in the gba area we also have infrastructure costs and ongoing electricity costs on top of the price of our water. Our water is not gravity fed we have to pump it out of the river/lagoon or bore. There is a different service provided to us than the channel customers. Gba irrigator Glen Parise