

The projected rise in business electricity tariffs for regional North Queensland from July 2016 will be a bitter blow to a city that is already struggling.