

Notice of investigation—Seqwater's bulk water prices for 2022–2026

18 June 2021

As directed by the Queensland Government, we have started an investigation into Seqwater's bulk water pricing practices. The objective of the investigation is to recommend bulk water prices to apply from 1 July 2022 to 30 June 2026.

Public involvement is an important part of our review process, and we invite all stakeholders, including members of the community, to participate in our review. Stakeholders are invited to make an initial submission by 13 August 2021. There will be a further opportunity to make submissions after we release our draft report later this year.

To assist stakeholders with their submissions and to explain our general approach to the review, we have published an information notice on our website. Seqwater's submission is due by 30 June 2021. We will publish the submission on our website as soon as possible after it is received.

How to make a submission

You can make a submission online at www.qca.org.au/submissions

Alternatively, you can send your submission to:

Seqwater bulk water price review 2022–2026
Queensland Competition Authority
GPO Box 2257
Brisbane QLD 4001

In the interests of transparency and to promote consultation, we will make all submissions publicly available, subject to confidentiality constraints. If you wish to claim confidentiality over all or part of your submission, please refer to our information notice.

How to keep updated

For more information about our review, you can visit our website or contact us on 07 3222 0555.

To receive updates on our review, please register your details at: www.qca.org.au/email-alerts.
